

Additional Services

Annex 2 to Standard Inspection Contract

You may, under this Contract, wish us to provide Additional Services that are excluded from the Scope of Inspection and the Inspection Services. We are able to provide a broad range of Additional Services on a consultancy basis provided that:

- 7.1.1 It does not breach our UKAS accreditation to provide such Additional Services to you;
- 7.1.2 The Additional Services are within our field of technical expertise, and
- 7.1.3 We have the resources available to provide the Additional Services to you at the relevant time

We are unable to undertake Additional Services that would breach our UKAS accreditation. For example, we would not be able to design, install, repair or modify any plant that we inspect.

Examples of Additional Services we may be able to provide to help you comply with your legal obligations, or improve your technical standards and customer confidence, include:

- 7.3.1 Specifying your equipment requirements
- 7.3.2 Assessing design of equipment that you are procuring or manufacturing as meeting necessary standards and/or being suitable for intended use

- 7.3.3 Testing the installation of equipment
- 7.3.4 Training and/or assessing your employees and/or contractors
- 7.3.5 Auditing your maintenance and inspection systems and/or quality systems
- 7.3.6 Assessing your equipment-related risks
- 7.3.7 Creating your bespoke written schemes of examination (scope and frequency) to address your specific equipment related risks
- 7.3.8 Assessing the remnant life of your equipment

Additional Services would be quoted for separately and subject to separate terms and conditions of contract (unless we agree in writing with you and in advance of delivery of the Additional Services that they will be incorporated into this Contract)
